

Communication and EU Policy Trainee at Euclid Network

Fascinated by the world of impact and social enterprises? Do you have what it takes to help us generate more social impact? Would you love to learn more about the European Commission and work with one of their strategic partners? Apply now for a fascinating traineeship and work on social entrepreneurship, social finance and policy on international European level with stakeholders in government, academia, private sector and social entrepreneurs, impact-driven leaders and investors.

In tomorrow's economy business success is not only measured in profitability, but it's reflected in the responsibility with which they treat the planet and the dignity with which they treat people. Social entrepreneurs and leaders are the world's frontrunners, dedicated to solving societal challenges while running a sustainable business. As a European network for social enterprises and impact-driven leaders we connect and support impact practitioners.

Our strategic programs and special events

Our programs include Erasmus for young Entrepreneurs (EYE), PeerEx, MedUp! and strategic partnerships such as the EU Programme for Employment and Social Innovation, UNTFSSSE, WEF Alliance for Social Enterprises and GECES. Our events create a platform for impact-driven organizations from all corners of Europe and beyond to present themselves, connect to investors, public officials and exchange experiences to scale together.

Responsibilities

Under direct supervision of the Communication and Events Manager, the Communication and EU Policy Trainee will be involved in the following activities:

- Write, produce and disseminate EN success stories to all EN social media platforms
- Draft text and multimedia content for external communications (social media, newsletters) and develop ideas to engage EN social media followers
- Implement the social media strategy, media monitoring and impact analysis
- Monitor EU policy developments related to Euclid Network's priorities
- Support the preparation of policy briefings and positions, amendments and official consultations
- Engage with policymakers, civil society, trade unions and the investment industry in order to disseminate and present our positions.

Education and Experience:

- A Bachelor's degree in communication, public relations, political sciences, European studies or other relevant topic
- Experience working collaboratively in campus/faculty and volunteering organization
- Creative and innovative
- Fluent in English both for writing and speaking

- Good analytical skills and have basic knowledge and understanding about the European Union (socio-economic, culture, innovation & technology)
- Good skills in video/photo editing, event management, and coordination would be a plus.

Benefits

- Be part of an expanding scale-up with a recognized track record since 2007
- Ability to work remotely or at our office in Apollo 14 (The Hague) the new building for entrepreneurs who contribute to a better world through technological and social innovations
- Enjoy space for own initiative
- Be part of an open and committed team
- Work in an international environment in every sense: colleagues, projects, events
- Work for a buzzing sector; social enterprises are the future

- The employer can help with requesting an Erasmus+ scholarship
- The employer is open to discussing a part-time role

How to apply

Please apply with a letter of motivation (1 page) setting out how you meet the essential criteria above and a CV (2 pages) in single PDF document by Friday, 22nd January 2021. Email us at monica@euclidnetwork.eu

Follow-up interviews will take place end January 2021. The appointed candidate would be expected to start February – March 2021, timings can be discussed.