

Communication and Design Trainee at Euclid Network

Fascinated by the world of impact and social enterprises? Do you have what it takes to help us generate more social impact? Would you love to learn more about the European Commission and work with one of their strategic partners? Apply now for a fascinating traineeship and work in the field of social entrepreneurship on an international stage with stakeholders in government, academia, private sector and social entrepreneurs, impact-driven leaders and investors.

In tomorrow's economy, business success is not only measured in profitability, but it's reflected in the responsibility with which they treat the planet and the dignity with which they treat people. Social entrepreneurs and innovators are the world's frontrunners, dedicated to solving societal challenges while running a sustainable business. As a European network for social enterprises and impact-driven leaders we connect and support impact practitioners.

Our strategic programs and special events

Our programs and campaigns include Erasmus for young Entrepreneurs (EYE), Women In Social Entrepreneurship, BuySocial and strategic partnerships such as the European Commission. Our events such as the Impact Summit, create a platform for impact-driven organizations from all corners of Europe and beyond to present themselves, connect to investors, public officials and exchange experiences to scale together.

Responsibilities

Reporting to the Communication and Events Manager, a successful candidate will be expected:

- To help EN disseminate success stories on all EN social media platforms (FB, Twitter, LinkedIn etc.);
- To produce text and multimedia content for external communications (social media, email marketing, newsletters etc.);
- To post regularly and engage EN social media followers;
- To help organize EN events, both virtual and physical;
- To engage the members and EN's wider community on various channels;
- To perform other related tasks as required.

Required skills and experience

- Bachelors or a Masters student or recent graduate in communication, design, digital marketing or other relevant fields.
- Experience running social media campaigns with a proven track record of increasing engagement, followers and reach;

- Firm grasp of the Adobe Suite is a plus but not a must (Photoshop, InDesign e familiarity with Canva is expected);
- Basic familiarity with social entrepreneurship, innovation or demonstrable ability to grasp new areas of knowledge;
- A fast learner who is able to adapt to changing circumstances;
- Impeccable verbal and written skills in English, with additional European languages being an advantage;
- Previous work experience is an asset but is not required;
- Able to work remotely.

Benefits

- Be part of an expanding scale-up with a recognized track record of impact since 2007
- Be part of an open and committed team
- Gain valuable experience working for a purpose driven organization
- Gain access to our network of social impact organizations and leaders
- Have the space for taking initiative and a chance to learn new skills
- Have a chance to work at our office space in Apollo 14 (The Hague) - a hub of technological and social innovations
- Work in an international environment in every sense: colleagues, projects and events
- Work for a buzzing sector - social enterprises are the future
- The employer can help with requesting an Erasmus+ scholarship for trainees in the EU

How to apply

Please apply with a letter of motivation (1 page) setting out how you meet the essential criteria above and a CV (1 page) in a single PDF document by 30th of September 2021. Email your submission to asad@euclidnetwork.eu and if you have any questions feel free to contact us.

Follow-up interviews are to take place by the last week of August. The appointed candidate would be expected to start as soon as possible, ideally by the last week of August 2021. This position is for six months and we have three open positions for this role.