

Internship on women in social enterprise at Euclid Network

Start date: January 2022

End date: March 2022

Fascinated by the world of impact and social enterprises? Do you have what it takes to help us generate more social impact? Would you love to learn more about the European Commission and our work with members and strategic partners? Apply now for a fascinating internship and work on women leadership in the social enterprise sector.

Our mission – and yours?

In tomorrow's economy business success is not only measured in profitability, but it's reflected in the responsibility with which they treat the planet and the dignity with which they treat people. Social entrepreneurs and leaders are the world's frontrunners, dedicated to solving societal challenges while running a sustainable business. As a European network for social enterprises and impact-driven leaders we connect and support impact practitioners.

Since our foundation in 2007 we have managed over 25 mainly EU-funded projects and worked with over 50 partners from most EU Member States, as well as partners from the Middle East and Russia. EN facilitates the connection and exchange of knowledge and best practices through our members and the wider social enterprise ecosystem. Thanks to our strategic partnership with the European Commission, EN works to put social entrepreneurs at the forefront of shaping the ecosystem and market for social enterprises. EN also designs, leads, and implements projects such as an entrepreneur's exchange across Europe, peer exchanges of representatives of social enterprise support organisations, and an internationalization project.

Responsibilities

Under direct supervision of the Project Manager, the intern will be involved in the following activities:

- Support the call for nominations to compile a data base of women leaders in the social enterprise sector
- Draft text and multimedia content for communications campaign (social media, newsletters) on women leadership in the social enterprise sector
- Write, produce and disseminate success stories of women leaders to all EN social media platforms
- Offer logistical support to EN's Impact Summit 2022
- Liaise with outreach partners, nominees and jury members
- Engage with EN members and strategic partners in order to raise awareness on women leadership in the social enterprise sector

Education and Experience:

- Experience working collaboratively in campus/faculty and/or volunteering organization
- Creative and innovative
- Fluent in English both for writing and speaking
- Good analytical skills and have basic knowledge and understanding about the European Union (socio-economic, culture, innovation & technology)
- Good skills in video/photo editing, event management, and coordination would be a plus

Benefits

- Be part of an expanding scale-up with a recognized track record since 2007
- Enjoy space for own initiative
- Be part of an open and committed team
- Work in an international environment in every sense: colleagues, projects, events
- Work for a buzzing sector; social enterprises are the future
- Reimbursement of travel costs and stipend of 100 Euro/month

- The employer is open to discussing a part-time role
- The candidate is preferable based in The Netherlands

How to apply

Please apply with a letter of motivation (1 page) setting out how you meet the essential criteria above and your motivation for this role, plus a CV (max. 2 pages) in a single PDF document by Friday 26. November 2021.

Email us at gerlinde@euclidnetwork.eu

Follow-up interviews will take place early December. The appointed candidate would be expected to start in the beginning of January 2022, timings can be discussed.