

Communication and Events Trainee at Euclid Network

Fascinated by the world of impact and social enterprises? Do you have what it takes to help us generate more social impact? Would you love to learn more about the European Commission and work with one of their strategic partners? Apply now for a fascinating traineeship and work on social entrepreneurship, social finance and policy on international European level with stakeholders in government, academia, private sector and social entrepreneurs, impact-driven leaders and investors.

In tomorrow's economy, business success is not only measured in profitability but is reflected in the responsibility with which enterprises treat the planet and the dignity with which they treat people. Social entrepreneurs and impact driven leaders are the world's frontrunners in this new economy, dedicated to solving societal challenges while running a sustainable business. As a European network for social enterprises and impact driven leaders we connect and support impact practitioners.

Our mission – and yours?

We are a strategic partner of the European Commission, working under the EU Programme for Employment and Social Innovation. EN collaborates internationally, working with and participating in organisations such as the UNTFSSSE and WEF Alliance for Social Enterprises. Our events create a platform for impact-driven organisations from all corners of Europe and beyond to present themselves, connect to investors, public officials and exchange experiences to scale together.

Responsibilities

Under direct supervision of the Head of Communications and Events Manager, the Communication Trainee will be involved in the following activities:

- Write, produce and disseminate EN success stories to all EN social media platforms
- Develop ideas to engage EN social media followers
- Drafting text and multimedia content for external communications (social media, newsletters)
- Involving EN members throughout Europe, the Middle East and beyond
- Implementing the social media strategy, media monitoring and impact analysis
- Assist in organizing EN events

Education and Experience

- A bachelor's degree
- Experience working collaboratively in campus/faculty and volunteering organization
- Creative and innovative

- Fluent in English both for writing and speaking
- Good analytical skills and have basic knowledge and understanding about the European Union (socio-economic, people, culture, innovation & technology)
- Good skills in video/photo editing, event management, and coordination would be a plus.
- European outlook and intercultural skills

Benefits

- Be part of an expanding scale-up with a recognized track record since 2007
- Ability to work remotely or at our office in Apollo 14 (The Hague) the building for entrepreneurs who contribute to a better world through technological and social innovations;
- Enjoy space for own initiative;
- Be part of an open and committed team;
- Work in an international environment in every sense: colleagues, projects, events;
- Work for a buzzing sector; social enterprises are the future;
- The employer offers remuneration of 300€/month pro rata;
- The employer can help with requesting an Erasmus+ scholarship if the applicant is still enrolled in a university programme;
- The employer is open to discussing a part-time role

How to apply

Please apply with a letter of motivation (1 page) setting out how you meet the essential criteria above and a CV in single PDF document by Friday 06 May 2022. Email us at helen@euclidnetwork.eu.

Follow-up interviews will take place in May. We are interviewing candidates on a rolling basis. The appointed candidate would be expected to start as soon as possible, timings can be discussed.